

REVELSTOKE.

TOURISM TALKS

LET'S PLAN FOR REVELSTOKE 2073.

Tourism has brought money, jobs, and vitality to Revelstoke. It's our largest industry, and it's growing fast.

But such rapid growth is risky. If left unchecked, tourism could easily cost us our ways of life, the environment, and all that makes Revelstoke special.

As residents, we have a choice. Will we let Revelstoke turn into another recreational Disneyland, or will we come together to make sure tourism actually leads to a vibrant, sustainable future?

Revelstoke residents, we need your input.

Your voice matters. Whether you've been here for 50 years or five, whether your haunt is Monashee Spirits or the Grizzly, whether you live for the outdoors or the indoors – have your say in shaping a vision for what Revelstoke will become for the next generations.

Let's plan for 50 years from now. Let's plan for 2073.

Revelstoke 2073 by Laurie Apeceche.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED:

- Look for our surveyors in fall 2022 and tell them about your vision for Revelstoke.
- Attend a film showing presented by Tourism Revelstoke.
- Participate in our school project with your family in fall 2022.
- Visit DestinationRevelstoke.com and read about what we're up to.
- Contact Tourism Revelstoke directly.
- Read our Tourism Talks column in the Revelstoke Mountaineer.

To read previous Tourism Talks columns, head to destinationrevelstoke.com.